Family Background and Artistic Upbringing

Diego Giacometti was born in 1902 in Borgonovo, a small village in the Swiss Alps. From an early age, he was immersed in a creative environment; his father, Alberto Giacometti, was already establishing himself as an influential sculptor, known for his elongated human figures and existential themes. Diego's childhood was marked by exposure to art, craftsmanship, and a keen appreciation for the sculptural arts.

Growing up amidst the artistic vibrancy of his father's studio in Stampa and later in Paris, Diego learned the importance of meticulous craftsmanship and creative experimentation. His early education included studies in architecture, which would later influence his approach to sculptural and functional objects.
